It is the idea of the statute to treat juvenile offenders not as criminals, but as persons not having mind sufficient to form a criminal intent.  & Sons, of this city; and D. S. Gay, of

 is in the country with the exception of about 10,000 bushels.

It is estimated it will take $500,000 to finance the deal. The seed will be

Burning the Candle.

"So Parker shot himself, did he?"
 mused one of Marshal Field's wholesale salesmen. "Yes," answered the silk buyer, sadly. "What on earth did he do it for?" queried the salesman.
 "Oh, I don't know; he was hitting a pretty fast pace," answered the other.
 "Burning the candle at both ends, eh?"
 remarked the salesman. "Yes, I guess that's what you'd call it," admitted the buyer. For a few moments both men were silent, then the salesman looked up. "Funny, isn't it, that when a fellow burns his candle at both ends he never thinks of blowing out the candle; it's always his brains."

Unique Country Home.

Percy A. Rockefeller, son of Wm.
 Rockefeller and nephew of John D.
 Rockefeller, is building a country home in Connecticut which is unlike any other ever planned. Perhaps the most extraordinary feature of it is a confined air space in the walls, forming a non-conductor of heat, cold or moisture. The air space, it is said, will make the house warmer in winter, cooler in summer and dryer all the year around than any other man's home, rich or poor.

"Love Buttons" in Vogue.

When you see a man wearing a photograph button in his coat lapel you may be pretty sure that he is either engaged or married to the lady whose portrait adorns him. Instead of wearing an engagement ring
 it has become the fashion among certain classes of men to wear "love buttons."

The Coronach.

The coronach, or mourning for the dead, is still heard in many parts of Scotland as well as Ireland. It is a weird chant, cries of lamentation being mingled with remonstrances addressed to the departed for leaving his friends and relatives.

 Expense of Enterprise.
 [SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Evansville, Wis., July 22.—A few of our most public-spirited citizens are agitating the question of replacing the old mill dam and restoring Lake Leda. A canvass of the business portion of the city showed that everyone was in favor of something being done along this line and many offered to contribute liberally toward the cause.
 It is hoped that the enterprise will be pushed to completion as it has been a source of regret to many that the lake was ever allowed to drain out.

THERMOMETERS SOAR

Many Happenings in Social World
 Despite the High Temperature of the Season.

Janesville enjoys itself socially despite the high thermometers, which show the heat of old Sol to be excessive. Picnics, golf, porch bridge parties and even dancing is enjoyed despite atmospheric conditions. Today Mr. and Mrs. George McKee are entertaining Mr. and Mrs.
 Proudfit, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Fred Brown of Madison at a beefsteak dinner up the river. The entertained a party up the river in a similar manner.

Last evening the second of the second series of dances given by the House Committee of the Mississippi
 Golf club was held and a large number enjoyed the music furnished by Carter's orchestra. Miss Belle Mac-Lean won the ladies' putting match held in the afternoon. Several small parties of young ladies also enjoyed bridge games on the broad veranda during the afternoon and early evening.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Frank Jackson entertained four tables at bridge, serving a delicious luncheon later. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Hill of Cleveland and Mrs. William Shattuck of Minneapolis. Cards were played at small tables on the broad veranda of the Jackson home,
 Mrs. Hill winning the prize.

Mr. and Mrs. William Watt and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gage are spending the week at a cottage at Lake Waubesa.

 pelled to run slowly over the road at places but arrived here on time.

I. C. Bridge Washed Out: One section of the Illinois Central bridge

 Madison and Freeport, Ill., transferred at the damaged bridge this morning.

Painters Gone: The gang of painters, who have been painting property of the North-Western road here, left for Racine yesterday to do some work there. They will return to this city in a couple of weeks to paint the interior of the local freight house and the pas-

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The kidneys like the heart, and the stomach, and their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell.

STATE RIGHTS IN POLITICS

If the clash between the federal court and the government of North Carolina over the question of the new passenger rate, law of that state becomes an issue in the politics of the country, there can be no doubt of the final result. The people of the United States may be depended upon to vote and to fight for nationality as against state rights on any well defined issue. It would be unfortunate, indeed, if the question were raised so as to become a great national issue, for there is a value in maintaining a certain equilibrium of power between the federal government and the state governments.

It is curious to note how the position of people toward this question varies with their personal interest. Take the railroad corporations, for instance. For years many of them have been in practical possession of the state governments so far as legislation in regard to transportation was involved. When the federal government began to insist upon the regulation of the railroads the railroads naturally insisted upon the rights of the states because they could use the power of the states for their protection. But as it is now multitudes of the states are legislating drastically against the states, and in North Carolina it is a federal court which stands between the railroads and what the railroads consider as unjust and confiscatory legislation.

OUR INQUIRING DISPOSITION

Ambassador Jusserand, who so ably represents the great sister republic across the water, says that he never can believe that time is money in America so long as an American businessman considers it necessary to be personally present when his shoes are cleaned. Anybody who has tried to get through a crowded business district of a city in a hurry will wonder if outsiders do not understand us best. He is constantly impeded by a crowd of six persons looking at something which does not concern them, and six hundred trying to find out what the six are looking at.

IF OHIO ENDORSES TAFT

If the republican state committee of Ohio endorses Secretary Taft for the presidency, Judge Taft's chances of the nomination will be immensely increased, says the Wall Street Journal. It has appeared probable that he could not command a united delegation from his own state and perhaps could not command even a large majority. If, however, it appears that the state will support the secretary, then he will enter the national convention under the most favorable auspices which a candidate could have.

Janesville is ready for the interurban to Madison, no matter who builds it. What Janesville wants is the interurban; it wants it pretty badly. So Mr. Capitalist, if you want to build the road start right ahead.

THE LIMIT OF PATIENCE.

Owner of One Telephone in Flat Building Protests.

"Of course," said the cheerful woman, "I believe in loving my neighbor as myself, but I find it harder since we have had a telephone put in our flat. We live in an old-fashioned flat house and ours is the only telephone on the premises. I do not know how the neighbors learned that we have one, for I am not acquainted with anybody in the building, but it was not in more than a week when the woman across the hall came over to ask if she could use it. 'Of course I'll pay,' she said, and naturally I had no choice but to let her use it. She paid five cents, but under the rules of the telephone company private wires cost more than that per message. However, I did not wish to be small, so I let it pass. She evidently carried the good news throughout the building, for there has been a continuous performance ever since. A few days ago somebody rang me up and asked for Mrs. Blank, who lives on the top floor. I was the only person at home at the time, so I had to climb three flights of stairs and tell Mrs. Blank to come down. What's that? Virtue its own—Oh, yes, I know; but whose virtue?"

Needed a Cow.

A lot of poor children were at a farm. The farmer gave them some milk to drink, the product of a prize cow.

"How do you like it?" he asked, when they had finished.

"Gee, it's fine!" said one little fellow, who added after a pause, "I wish our milkman kept a cow!"—Cardinal Times.

Adopts an Indian.

Mrs. Lottie Thompson, a rich widow of Grand Junction, Col., has adopted a young Ute Indian as her son and heir. She saw the lad recently and was struck with his intelligence. He had no parents and the widow offered him a home. The boy is known under the name of Earl Dennis and is 13 years old.

VICTIM OF BAND OF BLACKMAILERS

ARMENIAN MERCHANT KILLED BECAUSE HE WOULDN'T PAY.

NINE OTHERS MARKED

Secret Organization, Originally for Patriotic Purposes, Now the Tool of Cowardly Villain in New York.

New York, July 24.—Seeking a motive for the murder Monday of H. S. Tavshanjian, the Armenian rug merchant, the district attorney's office was led Tuesday to an investigation of a report that Tavshanjian was one of ten wealthy Armenians who had been marked for slaughter if they failed to give up $10,000 each to a blackmailing band of their countrymen.

No color was given to this theory by Geroos Hampartoomian, who killed the rug man, when the prisoner was arraigned. In court he maintained a stolid indifference, waived examination and was remanded to the coroner. Later he made a statement to a representative of the district attorney. In this he declared that he had come here from Chicago for the express purpose of killing Tavshanjian, but that the crime was instigated by no one and no other person or society was involved.

Secret Blackmail Society.

From other sources, carefully protected by the authorities, came information of a startling character and said to be accurate. This is to the effect that a secret society of Armenians, originally organized for what the members held to be patriotic, though revolutionary purposes, had degenerated into an instrument for blackmail. The organization had branches in other cities, but recently many of these branches had disbanded, while the better element withdrew from all connection with the society.

The killing of Tavshanjian and the others, it was stated, was planned more than a year ago. They received letters which they interpreted as meaning that they must pay or take the consequences. The threatened men discussed the matter at a meeting. Tavshanjian was present. A number of the merchants were in favor of acceding to the demand.

"Better give them money and live," they said.

"No," said Tavshanjian. "As a matter of principle we should not pay. You can do as you will. They will get nothing from me."

Confirmed by Victim's Secretary.

Mr. Cambere, Tavshanjian's secretary, visited the district attorney's office Tuesday and there declared that the death of his employer grew out of attempted blackmail.

Cambere gave Assistant District Attorney Smythe a list of wealthy Armenians who he said had been forced to pay blackmail to this band.

"This is the work of an Armenian in this city who is the worst man in the world," said a prominent Armenian. "He has been responsible for many murders and lesser crimes, and too cowardly to commit them himself, he gets men of small intellect to do the work for him by making them believe that they are working for their country." Another, well-to-do Armenian said: "A priest who tried to fight the band was murdered in Odessa. Father Kasper Vartanian, killed in this city, was another victim."

Detroit Council Is Enjoined.

Detroit, Mich., July 24.—On an application by the Guaranty Title & Trust company of New York, Federal Judge Swan Tuesday afternoon issued a restraining order to prevent the city officials of Detroit and the members of the common council from enacting the pending street railway law known as the Hally ordinance.

BACK TO FRANKLIN THEORY.

Modern Scientists May Be Forced to Rehabilitate It.

More than a hundred years have elapsed since Benjamin Franklin, employing a phraseology now superseded, put forth a theory of matter, says a writer in "Current Literature." It was pronounced "a delusion" by the physicists of the nineteenth century, but the scientists of the twentieth century, according to Sir Oliver Lodge, may be forced to rehabilitate it as the only means of issue from the labyrinth in which all physical study is now involved. Stripped of technical verbiage and put briefly, the Franklin theory is that electricity and matter in combination form a neutral substance, which is the atom of matter as we know it. The most interesting part of the problem for ourselves, says Sir Oliver, is the explanation of matter in terms of electricity, the view that electricity, as Franklin seems to have supposed, the fundamental "substance." "What we men of to-day have been accustomed to regard as an indivisible atom of matter is thus built up out of electricity. All atoms—atoms of all sorts of 'substances'—are built up of the same thing. In our day, to put it more clearly, the theoretical and proximate achievement of what philosophers from Franklin's day to ours have always sought—a unification of matter—is offering itself to physical inquiry.

Women in Foreign Mills.

Four-fifths of the operatives in Japanese mills are women, probably due to the fact that they will work for less than the men. Men are only employed when absolutely necessary, such as for bosses, loom fixers, the heaviest card room work, etc.

ARE GREAT ACROBATS.

Clever Circus Artists Who Perform Novel Feats on a Bouncing Tremplin.

An unusually large number of novelty-acts are promised for the delectation of the local public when the Barnum & Bailey circus exhibits in Janesville, August 8. One of the latest, which will be presented here for the first time, is called "The Bouncing Tremplin." It is introduced by a company of seven imported artists—four men and three young women. From a published description of the act, the following interesting facts are taken:

"The tremplin is an elaborated acrobatic act performed on a platform in three sections. The end sections are solid, but in the center of the middle one there is an elastic canvas. Above the entire apparatus are two great wheels, and nearby is suspended a mammoth ball. The Steves Troupe, which performs the act, begins the display by a very clever series of acrobatic feats, turning single and double somersaults from shoulder to shoulder with wonderful agility. The tremplin is then utilized to perform some astonishing feats. The artists spring upon the elastic canvas, and being thrown high into the air, accomplish the most difficult somersaults, and finally land upon the shoulders of their companions on the end platforms. At the climax of the act, two of the girls whirl around on the great wheels at railroad speed, and the globe, opening, unexpectedly discloses the figure of a pretty young girl. The act is not only clever, offering opportunities for the display of rare skill and daring, but it is also new—and that is always worth while in these days when amusement purveyors are too apt to be contented with the things that are more or less conventional."

Among the other odd and curious acts that are announced for the big shows are the famous Carmen Troupe, who turn somersaults and perform other difficult feats on a high-wire; several troupes of trained animals, including sea-lions, dogs, ponies and elephants and the only riding seal in the world; Manuel Herzog's horses, which give a most unique display of trained intelligence in harness and at liberty; an acrobatic act on, over and around a troupe of remarkably trained elephants, ponies and dogs; Josie De Mott, the only somersault equestrienne; John Rooney, who makes somersault leaps from one horse to another, running tandem; the Riding Sicilians; Wm. DeMott and many others. These acts, it is said, are in addition to all the usual arena, hippodromic and zoological features of the big show, which also serves to introduce a gorgeous spectacle entitled, "Peace," and founded upon the Russo-Japanese war, and three entirely new sensations of such an unusual character as to excite comment and wonder wherever they are seen. In one of these, an automobile, guided by a handsome young American girl, shoots forty feet through the air, upside down, and the others are described as almost equally sensational.

Spanish Superstition.

There is a Spanish proverb that "On Tuesday one should never travel or marry," and this superstition is so ingrained that even in Madrid there are never any weddings on Tuesdays, and trains are almost empty.

TRUST BUSTING

The most popular man in the hearts of the American people today is President Roosevelt.

Why? Because he stands for the "square deal" to the common people as well as to the corporations.

He takes the side of the people who need things and against the combinations that would take advantage of their needs, to extort undue gains.

These are days when lots of men find it to their profit to combine and raise prices.

In Dentistry, Dr. Richards of Janesville holds aloof from all local combines and maintains his prices on a living, reasonable basis.

One lady recently saved $17 on her dental bill by selecting him to do her dental work.

He does the BEST of work.

His prices won't jar you.

SENSATION HAS BEEN PROMISED

WILLARD F. KIMBALL PUT UNDER BONDS BY JUDGE FIFIELD.

TO KEEP THE PEACE AND

Appear For Trial on Friday Next—Martin Curtis Avers He Threatened His Life.

Janesville is promised a sensation such as has been seldom witnessed here, when on Friday the case of the State of Wisconsin vs. Willard F. Kimball, Martin G. Curtis complaining witness, is called for trial. While the warrant avers that Kimball has threatened the life of Curtis, the attorneys for the defense intimated that the unwritten law would be invoked. District Attorney Fisher said he had hoped that the matter might be adjusted without an exposure which would shock society's inner circles and the court held the prisoner under $200 bonds to keep the peace and appear for trial on Friday next.

Sensation Promised.
The suit, if brought to trial, promises to be most sensational. The statement by Mr. Kimball's attorney, John Cunningham, in answer to the statement made by Curtis' lawyer, that Kimball had carried a gun in the past and Curtis was afraid of him as he had threatened to shoot him and begged he be put under bonds to keep the peace, intimating that the unwritten law, which touches upon the sanctity of the defendant's home, might be used as a justification of the threat, adds to the spiciness of the case.

Former Partners.
Martin Curtis and Willard Kimball were former partners in the saloon business at the Saratoga saloon on west Milwaukee street until a little over a year ago when Mr. Kimball retired from the business and purchased what is known as the Myers Hotel cigar store. Previous to entering the saloon business Mr. Curtis had for many years run the cigar store Mr. Kimball now operates and Mr. Kimball had been employed at the Thoroughgood factory.

May Be Settled.
The differences may be settled out of court before the case is tried on Friday but indications point to a most sensational trial in which much of the risk is in the evidence, both men are well known in the city and the arrest and placing under bonds of Mr. Kimball has created a considerable sensation.

KEMP KEHOE IN HAY FIELDS NEAR CITY

Youth Who Drove Off in Mayor Heddes' Rig Saturday Earning Money to Go Home.

Kemp Kehoe, the young man who drove off in Floyd Murdoch's delivery wagon Saturday morning and later took a drive to Monterey in Mayor S. B. Heddes' rig, is now working in the hay fields near the city, earning money to go home to his mother in Buffalo, N. Y. While in the jail Saturday afternoon Kehoe cried continuously and begged for leniency. His seeming lack of viciousness and remorse at the crime which he evidently committed without an intention of doing any great harm, led the police to release him and so far he is keeping his promise to be peaceable.

GEHRKE SOLD BEER WITHOUT LICENSE

Manager of Crystal Springs Park, up the River, Paid Fifty Dollars' Fine This Morning.

On complaint of J. N. Graf, a temperance worker, Paul F. Gehrke was hauled into Municipal court this morning and charged with selling spirituous liquor without a license. The instrument recited that the offense was committed Sunday, July 21, in the town of Janesville, meaning Crystal Springs park, the up-river resort managed by Mr. Gehrke. The defendant pleaded guilty and Judge Fifield fixed the minimum penalty, which is a fine of $50 or a sentence of thirty days in the county jail. Mr. Gehrke paid the fine and costs, the latter of which was $4.10. A similar complaint was read against Albert Hankey, who had also been summoned to the bar of justice. In regard to the matter, District Attorney Fisher stated that as Mr. Hankey acted only as assistant to Mr. Gehrke he moved the case be dismissed. The court assented.

NO BUFFET CAR FOR ST. PAUL WEST END

Chief Counsel Ellis of St. Paul Road Says Service Would Not Pay—Matter May Be Dropped.

Because of the expense in operation, it is probable that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road will not put on a buffet car between this city and Mineral Point on the west end. Chief Counsel William Ellis, of the railway company, was in Monroe Tuesday to talk the matter over with Attorney C. W. Wright of that city, who conducted the fight for better service on the Mineral Point division before the state railroad commission. Mr. Ellis stated that the cost of operating a buffet car is so great that it would not net the company any money but would entail a loss. The matter of putting a buffet car on the passenger trains running between here and Mineral Point was left open for a later decision when the agitation for better service on the west end of the road was begun last winter. Attorney Wright is said to be willing to accede to the wishes of the company not to operate the buffet car on the Mineral Point division if the company will agree to make connections with the Illinois Central trains at Dill, a station west of Monroe.

The coming of the ciccoes is supposed to mean better fishing and campers and outers are jubilant.

Reception to New Members: On Thursday evening the Baptist church gives a reception to the new members received during the church year. There will be an appropriate program. About one hundred new members will be welcomed during the year.

ELKS ROOM NEARLY READY FOR THE CLUB

Contractor's Work is Almost Completed—Will be Handsome When Finished.

With the July meeting of the Janesville lodge 251 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks scheduled for next Tuesday, the work of finishing the club rooms in the Myers theatre block is being rushed and it is hoped all will be in readiness for their use by the members at that time. The lodge rooms are on the top floor, well lighted and ventilated and elaborately furnished. The club rooms on the second floor will be the finest in the state. Parlors, card rooms, billiard room, cafe and buffet, with retiring rooms are all to be tastefully furnished with handsome chairs, tables, rugs and curtains. Plans for the formal opening of the rooms have not been decided upon as yet. Arrangements have, however, been made for the Elks' benefit at the Myers theatre on November 2 when Joe Howard and Mable Barrison, who appeared here twice last season in the District Leader, will produce their new play, "The Flower of the Branch." This promises to be one of the musical attractions of the winter as well as the first Elks' benefit and will doubtless be largely attended. The House Committee of the new club rooms recently appointed is composed of William G. Wheeler, chairman, Warren Skelly, Seymour Johnson, W. H. Greenman, David Atwood, H. L. McNamara, and John L. Wilcox.

BEAR QUESTION IS STILL DEBATABLE

Signatures for the Fund Continue to Grow in Numbers—People Appear to Want the Bears.

Janesville people, not individuals, appear to like the idea of the city owning the bears and building a cage for them where the general public can enjoy them. In placing the subscription blanks at the drug stores, and in the Gazette, struck a popular chord and the lists are being rapidly signed. The bears continue to increase in popularity and their receptions held each evening at the city hall show that young and old enjoy their antics. The lists are still open and those who have not signed can do so.

MANY YOUNG MEN TO CAMP AT ASSEMBLY

Y. M. C. A. and Canoe Club Want to Rent Tents During Chautauqua Session.

This year there will be a regular colony of campers at Mole's Grove during the progress of the Chautauqua. Up till this morning Secretary Reeder had actually rented ten tents to families and many others have been asked for. The Y. M. C. A. will probably have a tent and six or seven young men members will occupy this. The Janesville Canoe club has also rented a tent and four young men will occupy it. Mr. Lewis, who has charge of the tents and grounds, has arrived in the city with assistants, busy engaged in stretching canvas.

FATHER BOURGMEYER DEAD IN KILBOURN

Catholic Priest Well Known Here and Close Friend of Rev. W. A. Goebel Succumbed Last Night.

Reverend Father Bourgmeier, a Roman Catholic priest well known in Janesville, died at his home in Kilbourn, Wis., last night after a long and painful illness. He was but thirty-nine years of age and by his demise the Catholic church loses a faithful and successful servant and his parish an excellent father. He was a man of sunny disposition and his friends were numbered by the score. He often visited in this city, being a brother of Miss Lily Bourgmeier of Prospect avenue and Mrs. Henry Hoffman of Fourth avenue and a very close friend of Father Goebel. The latter has charge of the funeral arrangements. Mass will be said in Kilbourn Thursday morning and burial will take place in Fond du Lac Friday.

Business Nearly Doubled.

One of the Janesville industries which has shown most gratifying growth during the past few years is the Janesville Pure Milk company. This company, which supplies absolutely pure pasteurized milk, had on July 1st, three years ago, 766 customers. A year later, in 1905, the list was increased to 916; on July 1st, 1906, the patrons numbered 1075, and on the first of the present month the company had over 1200 regular patrons. This increase of over half a thousand patrons testifies to the public's appreciation of the clean, up-to-date, sanitary service which the company has always maintained. The general public has been educated to the fact that the only pure, safe milk for household use is pasteurized milk, and the fact that the bottles in which the company delivers milk are carefully sterilized adds to the desirability of the product.

The fact that the business of the Janesville Pure Milk company has nearly doubled in a space of three years, and is growing now more rapidly than ever, means that it is supplying an actual need.

Kureki's Tact.
General Kureki has, by utilizing the tact for which he is noted, simplified the receptions which are to be tendered to him in this country by sending back to Japan the full dress uniforms of himself and staff immediately after the reception of President Roosevelt. If they had been worn it would have necessitated the wearing of like apparel by our own officers and caused much unnecessary fuss and feathers which the Japanese hero heartily dislikes.

LAUNCH OWNER WAS PUT UNDER ARREST

George Anderson, Fined Five Dollars for Running Boat Without a Light.

Having secured evidence that George Anderson, who owns an interest in the launch "Sister," has operated his boat on the river after dark and not carried a light, the police late yesterday afternoon placed the alleged offender under arrest. Mr. Anderson was in court this afternoon and on his plea of guilty was fined $5 and costs. The information against Anderson was secured from another launch owner in response to Marshal Appleby's request published in the Gazette last week. The chief promised to compel all launch-owners to carry lamps and this action is the first gun fired in a campaign to enforce the state law, passed for the protection of those using rowboats.

The Salaried Man

It is said that the men earning salaries between one thousand and five thousand dollars a year are the most improvident class. They think themselves above five and ten cent economies and generally spend their entire income.

One of our customers in this class has evolved a plan which in his case has been remarkably successful. Whenever his checking account shows a surplus over the amount needed for ordinary expenses, he takes a certificate of deposit. We commend his plan to the salaried man. 3 per cent interest paid on certificates of deposit.

SENSATION IN LOUISVILLE

RETIRING COUNTY CLERK ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

Shortage of About $45,000 Is Alleged, But Official Denies Charge—Mayor Behind Prosecution.

Louisville, Ky., July 24.—William J. Semolina, retiring county clerk, was arrested Tuesday afternoon on a charge of embezzlement, it being alleged that he is short in his accounts as clerk of Jefferson county in a sum approximating from $45,000 to $50,000. The arrest was made at the instance of Mayor Bingham and caused a great sensation.

Semolina furnished bond in the sum of $25,000 within a short time after his arrest.

Semolina was one of the officials whose offices were declared vacant by the court of appeals in deciding the election contest cases. He was elected as a Democrat. When his successor, Phil B. Thompson, was appointed a few days ago, the accounts of the office were checked up with the result that the head bookkeeper declared that there was a shortage of over $45,000. There had been rumors of a shortage for two years, but the books of State Auditor Hager when examined showed Semolina's accounts with the state to be correct up to June 1, 1907. When interviewed Tuesday night, he stated emphatically that a full examination of the books would show that he did not owe the state over $22,000, the amount of his collections for June and July, which he had the legal right to withhold, until he had been given his quietus and which will be paid in full. There was no shortage in the legal or moral sense of the word, he declared.

COL. WILL S. HAYS IS DEAD.

Famous Song Writer A Victim of Iroquois Theater Fire.

Louisville, Ky., July 24.—Col. Will S. Hays, the veteran river editor of the Courier Journal, song writer and poet, died at his home here Tuesday of vertigo, caused by a stroke of paralysis suffered in the Iroquois theater fire in Chicago. He was 70 years old.

Col. Hays always claimed the authorship of the original words of "Dixie" and said that he was responsible for the arrangement of the music. His version of "Dixie" was written at the outbreak of the civil war, but the words were considered so seditious that the writer was arrested and compelled to change them. Col. Hays' most famous song, was "Molly Darling," the sales of which reached 2,000,000 copies in Europe and America. Among his other songs were: "Keep in De Middle Ob De Road," "The Old Log Cabin in the Lane," and "Signal Bells at Sea."

FOR SOUTH AMERICA UNION

CASTRO'S ORGAN WANTS DRAGO DOCTRINE PROCLAIMED.

Article, Following Secretary Root's Second Note, Takes Rap at the United States.

Caracas, Venezuela, July 24.—Suggesting that the Spanish-American republics meet in congress to themselves approve and proclaim the Drago doctrine, now that the powers have ignored it at The Hague, a correspondent of the official government newspaper, El Constitucional, in a presumably inspired article, sounds the note for a "union against the common enemy; against the ambitions and egotism of the strongest."

This article has caused much comment in Caracas, because it was published on the day following the presentation by Minister Russell of Secretary Root's second note to Venezuela in which he says that President Castro's refusal of the demand presented by the American government in March for the arbitration of five American claims is unacceptable and again insists on a satisfactory consideration of the claims presented. The United States is directly alluded to in connection with the annexation of Texas and the independence of Panama which the writer says:

"We have seen English, German and American warships off the Venezuelan coast. In this way territory has been seized from Mexico and Colombia. Foreign interests are influential to-day in Ecuador and Central America, and perhaps to-morrow they will be in the whole continent, if these nations do not wake up soon to the reality and unite for the defense of their interests."

KILLED IN SHAM BATTLE.

Premature Explosion of Blank Charge at Fort Terry Fatal.

Fort Terry, Plum Island, N. Y., July 24.—By a premature explosion of a blank charge of one of the six-inch rifle guns at battery Bradford, this post shortly before noon Tuesday, Private George Hammond, of the One Hundredth company coast artillery, U. S. A., was killed and four others were injured, one man seriously.

The injured are: Sergeant Benjamin W. Banks, who may lose the sight of both eyes; and Private Hayes, both of the One Hundredth company; Private John McHugh and Private Joseph McHugh, brothers, members of company K, Third Infantry, C. N. G., whose homes are in Bridgeport.

The men, under the direction of Lieut. Joseph Myers, were engaged in repelling an imaginary enemy. It is believed that the blank was placed in the opened breach and that a burning ember, which lay there unnoticed, ignited the powder. Several companies of the coast artillery of the regular establishment, with a portion of the Third Infantry, C. N. G., are stationed here for the maneuvers that have been taking place for several days.

"Only 3 1/2% of Alcohol"

The highest scientific and medical authorities in the world unite in declaring that the alcohol (about 3 1/2%) contained in a bottle of pure malt beer like

is not enough to injure anyone, yet sufficient to naturally stimulate the regular flow of the gastric fluids within the stomach, so essential to the proper assimilation of solid foods.

Professor Dr. E. Struve, Berlin, Germany, says: "Owing to the small amount of alcohol in beer the same cannot be called an alcoholic beverage in the usual sense of these words."

Peerless Beer is an effervescent wholesome and fully matured beer of commanding superiority. Because of this it received the Gold Medal at St. Louis Exposition in 1904 and at Paris in 1900. It is a sparkling amber beer with splendid fragrance, delightful, snappy flavor and creamy foam. It has been brewed for 50 years by the famous Gund Natural Process that preserves the life of the malt.

Peerless contains only the choicest ingredients—the essential tonic juices of fine Bohemian hops, special yeast of our own cultivation, water flowing from a well in granite rock and the malted extract of rich, plump and sound Northwestern barley. Bottled at the home plant only. Sold in all reputable hotels, cafes, restaurants, etc. Ask "the man behind the bar," or buy a case delivered at your home. For family use no beer excels Peerless. A New Pipe, Fad.

The portrait pipe is a fad with certain wealthy young men, says a London paper. One of the most beautiful is owned by a well-known peer who was married to an American beauty a few years ago. He wished to have a pipe made bearing the likeness of his wife, and left several photographs and a statuette of her with the carver. A month later he received the pipe and a bill for $800. A number of pieces of meerschaum had been tried, only to prove defective, and the last piece, which measured eight inches high, seven inches broad and 12 inches deep, was reduced to a pipe three inches high and 2 1/2 inches at its widest part. When completed the pipe had passed through the hands of 27 workmen.

SHERIDAN'S RECORD.

Won All Around Championship With Percentage of 7.130 1/2.

BREAKS ALL WORLD'S MARKS

Probably the Big Olympic Champion Would Have Done Even Better Had He Been Hard Pressed by a Strong Competitor—His Performances.

Martin J. Sheridan won the all round championship of the Amateur Athletic union at Celtic Park, Long Island, N. Y., recently with the phenomenal percentage of 7.130 1/2 points. This breaks the world's record by 310 1/2 points. Sheridan himself established a record of 6.820 1/2 points at Boston two years ago. Last year Thomas T. Kieley won the honors, but failed to come anywhere near the record of Sheridan.

Sheridan was the leading member of the team that won the Olympic championship at Athens for America.

The Irish-American A. A. C. practically had a walkover. The only competitor with him was Richard Cotter, a clubmate, and with the exception of the high jump, in which both tied, Cotter never proved a dangerous opponent. He merely stayed to give the event the appearance of a competition.

J. J. Dalton of the Christian Brothers' college, St. Louis; Dennis Murry, the Dublin champion, and J. J. McLaughlin, the former Xavier A. A. (New York) crack, failed to put in an appearance. Nobody seemed to know why this trio of star performers were absent. The result was that it cast a damper on the contest, as far as a fight for the honors was concerned, if not for first place, as it was a foregone conclusion that Sheridan would win, but for second place.

Not a few of the followers of sport saw it was a case of stage fright and many said it places the Olympia hero in a position feared by all the world's greatest champions. Cotter, although outclassed at every stage, managed to score a total of 2.645 points.

Sheridan showed from the start that he did not care to win as he did. His love of true sportsmanship was evident, for he said he wanted to fight for the honors. As it was he had to go to practically alone. There was no pacer-maker. He had nothing to beat and he was plainly disgusted.

At the finish he said he was as fresh as a new June rose, but nevertheless he showed the terrific strain. His last words as he was leaving the grounds

Willie West Tears Off Some More Baseball Repartee.

The New York Americans had just taken a game from the Philadelphia, and it happened on the Highlanders' grass plot. The spectators were well pleased with the result, and pretty near every man who was leaving the ground had a smile of satisfaction overspreading his countenance, which caused the pitcher, Al Orth, to remark to the umpire, Tim Hurst:

"The smile is the same, Tim, in all languages."

"Yes, and so is the grunt," replied the cynical Mr. Hurst, who in his experience on the ball field has had every chance to acquire wisdom concerning the foibles of human nature.

NO, CLARENCE, THE UMPIRE IS NOT ALWAYS RIGHT.

"Talking of home plates, that reminds me," began Brick Morse, a Pacific coast ball player, "of the greatest hit I ever made. It was at the old Recreation grounds in San Francisco in the final game of the series with Stanford, score 3 to 2 against us."

"Remember the way that angle of the fence came in at center field? There was one of those wooden drags used to smooth off the infield. It had been left tilted up against that corner of the fence, supposedly out of the way."

"I missed the first ball up, lifted two pop fouls over the backstop, let three bad ones pass, had a rotten high one called on me, and it looked all off for yours truly. The next one came easy. I just shut my eyes and swung with all my might. I felt my hands sting on the bat. I went to first! Second! Three thousand people were up yelling like maniacs. 'Oh, you Brick! Home run; home run!' I tagged third and went for the plate. 'Slide! You gotta slide!' shouted in a roar like an express train crossing a trestle. Something struck me a terrible smash on the left side of the head. 'Out!' yelled the umpire. 'Hit by his own batted ball!' My big hit had gone to the center fence, struck the seat on old spiral bedsprings—and the ball had rebounded clear back to the plate!"

"How near were you to home, Clinton?" inquired Fred Koch.

"Oh, I was home all right. When I came to my fingers were touching the corner of the—"

"Plate?"

"None; the bureau."

Again, in answer to the old question of whether John L. Sullivan ever whipped Charlie Mitchell, it can be said that Sullivan did win from Mitchell in New York in 1883 in three rounds. The big fight with Mitchell, however, was called a draw. It was five years later at Chantilly, France, and went thirty-nine rounds. The men fought with bare knuckles in an open ring.

"Bottle Thrower Frank Chance" is what many of the fans term the Chicago National captain-manager since the disgraceful episode in Brooklyn. Chance hit an Italian boy on the head with a ginger pop bottle, and the big captain would have been arrested had not the boy been given $25 as a balm for his poor pounded cove.

Why does the average man prefer to throw a bottle instead of a smile when his temper is ruffled? Well, for one reason a bottle (or a brick) makes a whole lot more noise.

AN AGONIZING MOMENT—WILL THE DUNTED BALL HOLE FOUL?

There are some inveterate poker players in baseball and pugilistic circles who would do well to patronize capable manicures. They would better their hands in this way.

WILLIE WEST.

Like Clymer and Ganley. Outfielder Otis Clymer's debut with Washington has been an unqualified success. The Washington fans are howling for more Pittsburgh talent, as the samples sent in Ganley and Clymer are fine.

ROWDY BALL PLAYERS

Canada Finds Certain Cure. Sends Them to Jail.

CASE OF T. FLOOD OF TORONTO

American Officials Could Well Follow the Canucks' Example—Career in Detail of Jimmy Sheppard, the Great Chicago National Outfielder.

Canada has stunned the baseball world and incidentally taught it how to deal with rowdy ball players. Timothy Flood, second baseman of the Toronto team, who was put out of the game in Toronto recently for assaulting Umpire Conway and subsequently arrested, was later brought before Police Magistrate Denison for a hearing.

Umpire Conway appeared in court against Flood and explained his dignity as an official had suffered through Flood's abuse. Flood was advised to plead guilty to a charge of assault in the belief he would catch a small fine.

The magistrate decided the offense was aggravated assault and gave him a fifteen-day sentence in the city jail, and he was at once taken to his cell. To make matters worse for Flood, President Powers of the Eastern league expelled Flood from the Eastern league because, as he expressed it, "Flood is not fit to play in organized ball."

Flood's assault on the umpire was most uncalculated. He acted all through as if he considered that Conway was giving him the worst of it, and though the official did not favor Toronto in any way there was no reason why the second baseman should have made the show of himself that he did. Flood was disciplined once before by Conway, and evidently that rankled in his mind.

American officials should follow the fashion of Canada in some aggravated instance. If they did the few "rowdy" players would soon become as gentle as "teddy bears."

James G. Sheppard, the famous outfielder and heavy hitter and base stealer, now of the Chicago National league club, was born at Columbia, Pa., Nov. 23, 1878. He began to play ball in 1893 with amateur teams in his native city. In 1904 he played with the Marietta, of Marietta, Pa., returning there the following season.

The team disbanded, and Sheppard went to York, Pa., finishing the season there. During all that time the young player officiated as pitcher, besides playing shortstop and the outfield. In 1896 the York club joined the Pennsylvania state league, but disbanded in the spring, and Sheppard went to Lancaster of the same league.

The organization disbanded, and Sheppard was transferred to Chambersburg, Pa., where his arm was injured, and he stopped pitching and covered the outfield regularly. After three weeks the Chambersburg team disbanded, and Sheppard went to the Portsmouth club of the Virginia league, where he finished the season. He was drafted by Brockton in 1897 and immediately attracted attention by his batting.

Several league clubs tried to secure his services, but Brooklyn purchased his release before the New England league championship was ended.

He soon became a star with Brooklyn and remained with that club until the fall of 1905, when he was traded to Chicago, with which team he has since played as an outfielder.

Sheppard is one of the best base stealers in the country.

Pitcher Henderson. The Boston National club will not secure Pitcher Benny Henderson very soon, as the Portland (Ore.) club has placed him on the ineligible list for jumping to the outlaw Stockton club and proposing to make an example of him, despite Boston's offer of $2,000 for his reinstatement and release.

A Greek Ball Player. Konotchy, the new first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, comes from the Lacrosse team of the Wisconsin State league and was recommended by Pink Hawley. He is a Greek, it is said, and speaks that tongue fluently.

Tener a Leading Elk. John K. Tener of Charlelot, Pa., once a pitcher of the Chicago and who made the trip around the world with them, is being boomed for the next grand exalted ruler of the Elks, with excellent chances for his success.

Speedy Brockett. Pitcher Brockett, New York American, is said to be as fast as anybody going down to first base.

THE SNOW FIGHTERS.

The word has come from the top of the range, where the pass is a mist of white. That our foe is there in his rock walled lair, and we try out our strength to-night. The drifts lie thick 'twixt the canon's sides, with the ralls far down below, And the call is come through for the rotary crew to come up and buck the snow.

Our foe is white, but with youthful strength, and he fights through the night and day; And he never will quit to light pipe or spit, but he's there at his guns to slay. And he clutches the shining snapping ralls in a smothering, long embrace, And he laughs in his glee, though all silently, at the men who would storm his place.

But the snowplow roars like a maddened bull, as it charges the drifts, miles long. And its whirling blades lay bare the world's grades, and its song is the song of the strong. And soon, from the crest of the continent, where the granite crags rise sheer, The cheer is flashed, when the foe has been dashed, that the highway of steel is clear.

"ALL ENGINEERS GET SCARED."

Not Often, but Their Nerve Deserts Them Sometimes.

"Does an engineer ever lose his nerve? Is he ever afraid to take his train out on the run?"

These questions were asked of an "old-timer," a grizzled veteran who has pulled limited trains for the past ten years. He never had a wreck and, to use his expression, he "never even threw a shoe."

"But," he says, "I've given the nails holdin' them shoes some awful wrenches."

He smiled when the questions were asked.

"You can't get one engineer in a thousand to admit he is ever scared," he said. "But, just the same, they do get scared, and they don't know why. A man grows accustomed to pulling these eight-wheelers a mile a minute, doing it week in and week out. Then comes a time when something seems to say: 'Don't go out on that run to-night. Stay away.'"

"And there you are. You'll shake your shoulders and say 'Bah! why not? I'm not afraid!' Just the same you watch every curve, every switch light, every crossing, and your heart jumps when your engine strikes a low joint. Sometimes the feeling strikes with you for a week, and passes away. You don't know why, but all of a sudden it's gone. Then you'll whistle a tune when you climb into the cab and be as happy as a schoolboy. The road will seem smoother, and your big machine working better. Maybe it's just a little failing in your nerve."

"Some folks would say it was a presentiment that something would happen. Frequently trouble does come when you have these presentiments. And this fact, I presume, tends to make you more uneasy. One of the gamest men that ever pulled an engine was Lou Ward, who had the Frisco train to Fort Scott. He left every night at 2:10 o'clock with nothing but his engine, mail car and coach. He pulled that little 'rabbit train' sometimes 75 miles an hour."

"Lou," I said to him one night, "that train will get you some of these times."

"Yes, I guess so," he said. "That's a good little 'girl' I'm pullin', though, and she'll stick to the rails as long as any of 'em."

"Six months afterward his engine turned over at Lenexa. The steam and boiling water poured over him. They carried Lou to the hospital in Springfield. In a few weeks he was dead. His engine 'got him.'"

"Ward felt that some day his 'little girl' would be a wreck. And a broken rail caused it."

Railroad Progress.

Expenditures of steam railroads for new rolling stock during the present year far surpass all previous records, according to returns collected by the Railway Gazette from car and locomotive-building concerns in the United States and Canada. Freight cars to the number of 165,455 were turned out; passenger cars, 2,551, or a total of 168,006, comparing with only 62,956 last year and 164,547 in 1902, which held the previous high record. Nor do these figures take into account the number of cars built by railroads in their own shops, which have been unusually active this year. The number of locomotives constructed is 5,491, compared with 3,441 last year, 5,152 in 1902, the most active year up to the present, and only 695 in the hard times year of 1894. At an average cost of $1,000 per freight car, $7,000 per passenger car and $14,000 per locomotive, the aggregate expenditure of steam railroads on this account alone for a single year is $260,180,000. We have here a partial explanation of the boom in the iron and steel industries.

Crows Stopped a Train.

A train was brought to a stand near Liverdun, in France, by the presence on the line of thousands of crows engaged in picking up the refuse thrown out of the restaurant car of the Strasburg express.

The birds were crushed in such numbers that the engine wheels skidded and the train was temporarily stopped.

Important Bridge Completed.

The bridge on the Cape to Cairo railway, over the Kafue river, 266 miles north of the Victoria Falls, has been completed, and the other day the first train passed over it.

WHAT CHARLES DICKENS SAID.

Great Writer's Remark to Small Boy Lingered Long in Memory.

Mr. Henry C. Robinson, a witty lawyer who used to live in Hartford, Conn., once told the following anecdote one evening when he was introducing an English author to a Hartford audience. "The first famous Englishman whom I ever saw was Charles Dickens, who lectured here in Hartford when I was a young boy. I had read some of the stories of this great writer, and I was most anxious to catch a glimpse of the man himself. So on the afternoon when he was expected to arrive I walked up and down the street in front of the hotel where I knew he was to stay. The hotel was built close to the sidewalk, and the long windows of the parlor were so low that the passerby could easily see into the room. I soon realized that a gentleman was sitting within, reading a paper. 'I stepped close up under the window and pressed my face against the glass, eager to get a good look at the stranger. Yes, it was he! It really was! I had seen his picture often, and couldn't be mistaken. I stared and stared, anxious to impress every feature upon my memory. After a few moments he turned and saw me there, the little, eager Yankee boy, gazing up at his face; and then the famous man, laying aside his paper, actually spoke, so that I really heard the voice of the great Charles Dickens himself, and he was really talking to me!' Here Mr. Robinson paused impressively, and some one on the platform inquired, 'What did he say, Mr. Robinson?' He said, 'replied Mr. Robinson, in subdued tones, 'Go away, little boy! go away!'"

PAPA'S IDEA OF ECONOMY.

All Right When It Only Affected Pleasures of Others.

Not long ago we heard a man's little daughter say to him: "Papa, can't I have a nickel to buy some gum?" He was a good, kind man, and he didn't refuse her roughly. He patted her on the head and said: "Daughter, your old dad can't afford such things. It takes all our money to buy bread and meat and keep you and mamma in shoes." She looked disappointed and walked away. Presently he started home. He felt as if a hot one would help his appetite and put him in a more cheerful frame of mind in which to greet his family, so he walked in and put his right shoe upon the foot-rail. "What'll you have, boys?" he asked. Some of them took 'er straight; some took it diluted with seltzer. Nobody condescended to take beer. Our friend plunked down a dollar. When the barkeeper rang up the register it showed 65 cents.—Lamar Democrat.

PAINT

There's more in paint than the mixing of colors, lead and oil. Best results can be had only from best ingredients, accurate balance of their proportions, and the best method of mixing or assimilation. But most important of all is the grinding process. Upon the fineness depend in large degree the smoothness and covering capacity of a paint.

The Benefits of Modern Plumbing

One of the most generally approved ideas of modern plumbing is that of installing one-piece lavatories, supplied with hot and cold running water, in the sleeping apartments and dressing chambers of the individual members of the household.

At first thought this idea may appear to be luxurious to some persons but when its benefits are made apparent, it will be found necessary to modern living. One-piece lavatories throughout the home are in the first place, a mark of refinement—second, they direct constant attention to the toilet and promote cleanliness—third, they avoid the inconvenience of having to dress in order to reach the bathroom, possibly to find it already occupied.

Call, write or phone for a copy of booklet "Modern Lavatories" which shows the complete line of "Standard" One-piece Lavatories, with approximate prices in detail. There are none as good.
